Disaster Related Exceptions (Programs and Services That May Be Active in the Community Resource Database During Times of Disaster):

To assist in preparation and recovery after a disaster the 2-1-1 Big Bend Community Resource Database may contain a subset of services which do not meet the criteria stated above. This pre- and post-disaster subset contains information about available community resources that provide services in times of disaster. Database records include detailed descriptions of the services organizations provide, and the conditions under which services are available, indexed and accessed using the Disaster Services section of the 211 Human Services Indexing System.

The information includes:

- Permanent local, state and federal disaster-related resources, i.e., organizations with a formal role in emergency response, a clearly defined disaster mission and/or a history of providing services during a previous incident
- Organizations that have no formal role in emergency response but emerge in the context of a particular disaster, specific relief
- Recovery services that come to life in response to the specific needs of the community. These disaster resources are updated annually, immediately prior to an anticipated disaster and throughout the response, relief and recovery periods

Application of Inclusion/Exclusion Policy and Appeal Process

This policy does not prohibit the inclusion of any programs that target services based on age, gender, health, disability or other characteristics designed to meet the special needs of targeted populations. However, the programs must be open to all people in those targeted populations.

Where special circumstances exist which are not effectively covered by the preceding guidelines, the organization in question will be reviewed for inclusion by the Information and Referral program staff and the President/CEO. If questions remain, a review panel appointed by the Chair of the 2-1-1 Big Bend Board of Directors will make a recommendation to the Board about the appropriateness of inclusion on a case-by-case basis.

Agencies or organizations that want to appeal a decision by 2-1-1 Big Bend regarding the inclusion or exclusion decision should follow these guidelines:

1. Talk to the 2-1-1 Big Bend Director of Information Programs to clarify program services in relation to this policy.
2. If concerns are not resolved by step one, a written request providing rationale for the appeal or concerns must be sent to the President/CEO of 2-1-1 Big Bend.
3. The President/CEO will forward the letter to the 2-1-1 Big Bend Board Committee appointed by the Chair for a final decision.
4. Decisions of the Board Committee will be considered final.

No endorsement or lack of endorsement of any agency/program shall be construed from its inclusion in or omission from the 2-1-1 Big Bend Community Resource Database.
